

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying 'jovens-com-incapacidades' and 'disseminação projeto ICF-TRAIN'. The page content includes a header with navigation options like 'Ficheiro', 'Editar', 'Ver', 'Favoritos', 'Ferramentas', and 'Ajuda'. The main article text describes the ICF-TRAIN project, mentioning the Faculty of Psychology and Education at the University of Porto (FPCEUP) and its participation in a European project. It details the project's goals, the involvement of professionals from various countries, and the development of an online platform. A sidebar on the right features a profile for 'Ana Torres', a list of 'Próximos eventos' (upcoming events) with dates and locations, and a 'Subscrever newsletter' (subscribe to newsletter) button. The browser's address bar also shows 'FPCEUP ajuda a melhorar o...'.

The project was disseminated in the University Press in Portugal. The description of the project in the news has a link that directs the reader to the online platform of the project.
